

REAL ESTATE DEALS

The Paris Realty Co. sold at public auction Friday the five-room cottage of Mrs. Ada Green, located on Lileston avenue, to R. T. Murray, of Millersburg, for $2,961. There was a good crowd present, and the bidding was lively. Auctioneer Bryan Williams conducted the sale.

William C. Bell, of Paris, bought last week of Dr. D. S. Henry, a vacant lot located on Vine street at a private price. Mr. Bell expects to build a cottage on the lot in the near future.

RELIGIOUS

A Resume of Events In Religious Circles For Present and Future

—Ministers, laymen, Sunday School Superintendents, and heads of church societies are invited to use THE NEWS columns in this department, but items must be in the office by noon on Mondays and Thursdays. If a pastor, and too busy to attend to these notices, please appoint someone to furnish THE NEWS with news of your church's activities.

The services at the North Middletown Christian church Sunday night was featured by a memorial in honor of Dr. A. L. Shelton, who was killed by bandits near Batang, in Thibet. A program of special music was rendered. On the program were Mrs. Allie Smith Dickson, Jas. C. Bryan, Jr., John Willie Jones and Dr. Lot R. Henry.

—The Young Women's Mission Circle of the Christian church will meet in the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock this (Tuesday) afternoon. The missionary offering envelopes will be opened at this meeting.

—The Missionary Societies of the Paris Christian church, in accordance with their annual custom, are arranging a series of meetings for the week preceding Easter. The Young Women's Circle will have charge of the program on April 11, and there will be a social half-hour after the meeting. On Friday, April 14, at 2:30 p. m., a memorial meeting will be held to honor the memory of the martyr Missionary Dr. A. L. Shelton, murdered by bandits in far-away Thibet. This will be in connection with the program arranged by the Woman's Missionary Society. The annual self-denial offering will be made at this time.

—Rev. Charles E. Elmore, of Richmond, Va., will begin a series of revival meetings at the Carlisle Christian church on Easter Sunday, April 16. Rev. Elmore is a brother of Rev. R. E. Elmore, pastor of the Carlisle church.

—The women of the Little Rock Christian church will take an offering of eggs for the Widows' and Orphans' Home at Louisville, April 9. The Glee Club of Transylvania University will give a concert in the church on the night of Friday, April 4.

TO ADMINISTER ESTATE

In the County Court Judge Geo. Batterton made the following orders appointing administrators and executors of estates left by deceased Bourbon county people:

J. Elmer Boardman as administrator of the estate of Richard H. Boardman. Mr. Boardman qualified for the trust by furnishing bond in $7,000, with O. D. Boardman as surety.

The Bourbon Agricultural Bank & Trust Co. was appointed as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Carrie B. Prior. Bond was furnished in the sum of $3,000, no surety being required.

Ben F. Bedford and Nellie R. McClintock were appointed as administrators of the estate of Mrs. Nannie D. McClintock. Bond in the sum of $3,000, with S. E. Bedford as surety, was furnished.

Ben F. Bedford and Wm. K. Dudley were appointed executors of the estate of Miss Rebecca Dudley. They furnished bond in the sum of $1,000, with S. E. Bedford as surety.

You can send a boy to college, but you can't always make him profit by it.

PHILADELPHIA CLUB MEETS

At the recent meeting of the Philadelphia Club, a social organization in Philadelphia, composed of former students at the University of Kentucky, Frank Daugherty, formerly of Paris, member of the class of 1901, presented a humorous monologue on "The Roads of Kentucky," which was well received.

The meeting of the club was in the nature of a farewell to George Mills, class of '10, and Mrs. Mills. A miniature steam roller was presented to Mr. Mills and a "tin lizzie" to Mrs. Mills. Mr. Mills was also presented with a book on "Road Building," in which business he will be engaged in Lexington. Twenty-one members attended the meeting, which was featured by a dinner. The center piece on the table was a miniature asphalt road, one end of which was "Philadelphia," the other "Lexington," where Mr. and Mrs. Mills were seated.

PUBLIC RENTING OF FARM

Auctioneer M. F. Kenney rented publicly yesterday for John K. Steele, receiver, the Quincy Burgess farm, containing 165 acres, located two miles from Hutchison, to Wm. Craycraft, for $700.
